Christian World View and Philosophy
72012	Christianity—A Total World and Life System Abraham Kuyper	320	16.40
	A compilation of the 1898 Stone lectures by the nineteenth century Dutch Theologian. An application of the faith to various areas of life. 140 pages.
63009	The Death of Meaning R J Rushdoony	300	22.75
	In this volume, Rushdoony clearly enunciates each major philosopher's position and its implications, identifies the intellectual and moral consequences of each school of thought, and traces the dead-end to which each naturally leads. There is only one Foundation—Jesus Christ.
63002	Foundations of Christian Scholarship: Essays in the Van Til Perspective Edited by Gary North	525	30.35
	The eight different authors explain how the Bible judges both the framework and the content of each academic discipline. 355 pages. HC
63011	Francis Schaeffer Trilogy: The God Who Is There/Escape from Reason/He Is There and He Is not Silent Francis Schaeffer	680	34.40
	Three of Schaeffer's more popular works in one hardcover volume. 367 pages. HC
41014	How Should We Then Live? Francis Schaeffer	440	25.25
	Classic book on the rise and decline of western thought and culture set in a framework of art. 288 pages.
51010	Infallibility: an Inescapable Concept R J Rushdoony	150	2.95
	A significant book on the concept of infallibility. In a world where relativity holds so many bound, infallibility is so important for God's people to understand. 69 pages.
63010	Intellectual Schizophrenia R J Rushdoony	280	21.50
	Rushdoony identifies the basic contradiction that pervades a secular society that rejects God's sovereignty but still needs law and order, justice, science and meaning to life. Secular man wants to use the things of creation while denying their Creator. Thus modern man is schizophrenic.
63003	Is the World Running Down? Crisis in World View Gary North	740	11.35
	Challenges the modern idea of entropy — the idea that the world is running down — with the response of Scripture, highlighted by the overcoming of entropy through the resurrection of Jesus. Asks hard questions of some creationists who stake their claims on the law of entropy. 400 pages. HC
63016	Presuppositional Apologetics Greg Bahnsen	570	39.25
	After being lost for some twenty years, the proofs of Bahnsen's treatise on apologetics have been discovered, and the last great work of 'the man atheists fear most' is back in print. Bahnsen's magnum opus lays out the Biblical presuppositional method, provides rigorous Biblical proof, and defends the uniqueness of the method. A must-read for Christian defenders of the faith for generations to come. 314 pages. HC
63012	Prevailing Worldviews in Western Society since 1500 (Commemorative Edition including CD) Dr Glenn Martin	430	42.30
	In this book, compiled from his lectures, the late Dr Glenn Martin examines the basic worldviews that have shaped culture and civilisation from the 1500s to the present, and extrapolates what worldviews will shape the future. The commemorative edition includes 32 pages of photographs and an audio CD of Martin's Basic Series Lectures.
63017	Pushing the Antithesis Greg Bahnsen	570	39.25
	Prior to his untimely death in 1995, Bahnsen delivered a series of lectures on apologetics to high school and college students, setting forth the basics of the Christian worldview and the biblical approach to defending the faith. These lessons have been distilled and turned into a one-of-a kind handbook on apologetics. 283 pages. HC
63015	The Return of the Village Atheist Joel McDurmon	180	12.40
	McDurmon's apologetic work is written in response to Sam Harris's Letter to a Christian Nation , which calls for the end of faith and religion. This book tackles popular atheism, the realm of the 'village atheist'. 128 pages.
63006	Revolt Against Maturity R J Rushdoony	680	22.75
	Study of the biblical doctrine of psychology. Portrays psychology as a branch of theology dealing with man as a fallen creature marked by a revolt against maturity. 334 pages. HC
51091	To Be As God R J Rushdoony	420	26.55
	Subtitled 'A Study of Modern Thought Since the Marquis de Sade', Rushdoony considered this one of his more important works. It traces the course of 'enlightened' man's attempts to defy God by priding himself on intellectual achievement. 253 pages.
63005	Understanding the Times David A Noebel	1700	58.15
	Considered the standard tome on the subject of Biblical World View. Nearly 890 pages of information comparing the various world views. HC

Code	Description	Weight (g)	Price	Code	Description	Weight (g)	Price
51023	Unholy Spirits Gary North	850	14.60
	Shows how the theory of an autonomous man is always accompanied by a rise in occultism. 426 pages.
63018	Van Til and the Limits of Reason R J Rushdoony	170	12.65
	The Enlightenment brought reason to replace revelation. The Christian must see faith in God's revelation as opening up an understanding, as thinking God's thoughts after Him and rationalism as a restriction of thought to the narrow confines of human understanding. These seven essays explore the Van Til perspective that puts God first and centre of all of life. 84 pages.
51097	The Word of Flux: Modern Man &amp; the Problem of Knowledge R J Rushdoony	240	24.00
	Exposes the fantasy upheld by most of the modern world that reality is (or will become) a part of man and subject to his imagination. 137 pages.
51164	Volume 4: Numbers R J Rushdoony	870	56.90
	The book of Numbers reveals God's dealings with two generations—judging the 'Pharaoh's slaves' older generation and training and encouraging the 'God's army' younger one. This commentary illustrates how the Lord desires a people who will embrace their responsibilities. HC
51237	Volume 5: Deuteronomy R J Rushdoony	1050	56.90
	This defining volume in the series addresses God's demands upon man, family, church and state. Rushdoony uses the book of Deuteronomy to summarise the central tenets of a truly Biblical worldview and shows how this last book of Moses is central to a gospel of victory in time and eternity. HC
51209	The Gospel of John R J Rushdoony	700	32.85
	Rushdoony's commentary on the Gospel of John takes the reader from parallels in Genesis through to the glorious conclusion of Christ's death and resurrection. 309 pages. HC
51226	Hebrews, James and Jude R J Rushdoony	520	37.95
	Rushdoony speaks strongly to the church of our time from these three epistles. 238 pages.
51085	Jesus v. Jerusalem Joel McDurmon	390	18.90
	McDurmon's commentary on Luke 9:51–20:26 is not only a verse-by-verse commentary on Jesus' teachings and parables during his final and critical journey to Jerusalem, but he also focuses on Jesus' first-century prophetic context and audiences. 251 pages.
51016	Moses and Pharaoh Gary North	675	17.55
	The first part of North's economic commentary on Exodus, provides a detailed study of the conflict between Moses and Pharaoh — a conflict between dominion and power. 448 pages.
51028	Romans and Galatians R J Rushdoony	920	30.35
	Rushdoony's recently published and excellent commentary on Romans and Galatians. Highly recommended. 446 pages. HC
51265	Sermons in Obadiah and Jonah R J Rushdoony	120	11.35
	Eight sermons (four from each book) are delightful and thoughtful backgrounds to these two minor prophets. Obadiah is a prophecy of judgement on Edom who bore a grudge against Judah. Jonah records not only Jonah's unfortunate behaviour but also God's dealing with his complaints. 84 pages.
51211	Chariots of Prophetic Fire (Studies in Elijah &amp; Elisha) R J Rushdoony	460	37.95
	Rushdoony challenges the church of our day to resist compromise and the temptation to expediency and realise that the power today does not lie in politics or governments but in God's men of faith.
51212	Volume 1: Genesis R J Rushdoony	680	56.90
	Theology without six-day creationism becomes alien to the God of Scripture because it turns from the God who acts and whose word is the creative word and the word of power, to a belief in process as god. The god of non-creationists is the creation of man and a figment of their imagination.
51213	Volume 2: Exodus R J Rushdoony	1080	56.90
	This thorough examination of the historic path of Israel through the exodus points us to the deliverance that came with the new exodus of Christ's resurrection. HC
51160	Volume 3: Leviticus R J Rushdoony	900	56.90
	This commentary shows how the purpose of Leviticus is to demonstrate the legal foundation of holiness in the totality of our lives, and to equip the church for its redemptive mission. HC

	Part two of the economic commentary on Exodus. Largely discusses the ten commandments from the viewpoint of economic theory. 395 pages.				This book questions Dr Crabb's writings to determine the status of his approach to counselling and ministering the gospel of salvation and sanctification. From the authors of Psychoheresy . 205 pages.
51227	Thy Kingdom Come R J Rushdoony	460	24.05	51183	12 Steps to Destruction Martin &amp; Deidre Bobgan	360	17.60
	First published in 1970, this book helped spur the modern rise of post-millennialism. Contains studies in Daniel and Revelation which show the victorious message of the gospel. 271 pages.				The book urges believers to trust in the sufficiency of Christ and the Bible instead of the 'Twelve Steps' and 'codependency/recovery' theories and therapies. 256 pages.
51058	Tools of Dominion: Case Laws of Exodus Gary North	2000	36.60
	An economic commentary on Exodus 21–40 covering topics such as slavery, criminal justice, victim's rights, restitution, pollution, the Sabbath, justice, bribery, usury, etc. 1296 pages. HC
Counselling				Devotional
51180	Against Biblical Counselling: For the Bible Martin &amp; Deidre Bobgan	300	17.60	41054	Comforting Hearts, Teaching Minds Starr Meade	340	20.00
	The primary thrust is to call Christians back to the Bible, to biblically ordained ministries and to mutual care in the Body of Christ. 200 pages.				A full year's devotions based in the Heidelberg Catechism. Explains the catechism in simple language and takes just a few minutes each day. Soft cover, 255 pages.
51150	Competent to Counsel Jay Adams	500	32.30	51216	Training Hearts, Teaching Minds Starr Meade	480	21.95
	An introduction to biblically based nouthetic counselling. This classic in the field of Christian counselling has helped many thousands. 287 pages. HC				A family devotional and memorisation guide to the shorter catechism, this book devotes six days to each catechism question. 349 pages.
51230	CRI Guilty of Psychoheresy Martin &amp; Deidre Bobgan	240	14.70	51080	A Word in Season Volume 1	190	19.40
	Argues that because of their position on psychotherapy, Christian Research Institute leave the door open to the integration of secular psychological counselling theories and therapies with the Bible. The tentacles of the psychological way have strangled the thinking of many Christians. 149 pages.			51082	A Word in Season Volume 2	190	19.40
51184	Four Temperaments, Astrology &amp; Personality Testing Martin &amp; Deidre Bobgan	320	17.60	51083	A Word in Season Volume 3	170	19.40
	Personality types and tests are examined from a biblical, historical and research basis. 214 pages.			51098	A Word in Season Volume 4	180	19.40
51231	James Dobson's Gospel of Self-Esteem &amp; Psychology Martin &amp; Deidre Bobgan	320	22.00	51285	A Word in Season Volume 5	210	19.40
	Demonstrates that some of Dobson's basic assumptions and many specific teachings originated from secular psychological theorists whose opinions are based on godless foundations. Self-esteem and psychology too often supersede sin, salvation and sanctification. They are another gospel. 243 pages.			51286	A Word in Season Volume 6	180	19.40
				51287	A Word in Season Volume 7 R J Rushdoony	170	19.40
					A series of daily messages taken from over 430 articles Rushdoony wrote for a regular column in an agricultural periodical. This is not a 'devotional' of introspective musings, but daily bite-sized readings on uncompromised faith. Approximately 150 pages each.
				Economics
				42004	Larceny of the Heart R J Rushdoony	280	22.70

41024	Endangered Minds Jane M Healy PhD	380	29.95		The classic work on the real purpose of humanistic, public education; its intention is to save man and all his institutions. 410 pages. HC
	Subtitled 'Why children don't think and what we can do about it', Healy draws on neuropsychological research to show how television, video games and other elements of popular culture are compromising our children's mental abilities. NSC			41020	NEA: Trojan Horse in American Education Samuel L Blumenfeld	375	29.30
41025	Failure to Connect Jane M Healy PhD	340	29.95		An expose of the National Education Association of the US; how the American people were conned by the 'educators'. The NEA's agenda is masterfully presented by the author. 284 pages.
	Includes valuable insight on the human brain and its relationship to learning, education and parenting. Warns of the dangerous effects computers can have on a young brain, but offers good practical methods for 'brain-friendly' computer usage. 350 pages. NSC			41049	On Secular Education R L Dabney	150	6.60
41001	Go Ye Therefore and Teach all Nations Paul Jehle	2730	91.00		An essay on secular education when state education was in its infancy, very enlightening.
	Paul Jehle's definitive work on biblical Christian education in the context of the Principle Approach. A rich resource for Christian teachers for biblical principles and in-depth understanding of Christian education. 1270 pages in two volumes, large format paperback.			52003	The Paideia of God Douglas Wilson	240	12.65
41007	The Harsh Truth About Public Schools Bruce N Shortt	620	27.80		Thought provoking essays on education. 149 pages.
	Modern public education has too often degenerated into indoctrination in secular humanism. This book presents a solution to the problem. 466 pages.			41023	The Philosophy of the Christian Curriculum R J Rushdoony	475	20.20
41016	How To Tutor Samuel L Blumenfeld	350	36.60		Rushdoony calls for all Christian educators to break from the entire humanistic mentality regarding education. A curriculum is not neutral; it must be reconstructed according to Scripture. 194 pages.
	Assists you become an effective tutor. A well organised and logical guide for teaching the 3 Rs. 298 pages.			41010	Quest for Authentic Higher Learning D Wilson/R Atwood	140	9.80
					Two essays: Classical Learning and the Christian College and A College Guide for Christian Families . 'So this is what we mean by classical...an educated return to the cultural heritage of the West. As Christians, we seek to lead the way back...in fact, as Christians we are the only ones equipped to do so.' 70 pages.

Government
44003	A Christian Manifesto Francis Schaeffer	225	18.95
	This is a call for Christians to change the course of history. It concludes that when the state directly defies the absolute law of God, its authority becomes illegitimate. 157 pages.
44004	Christianity and the State R J Rushdoony	500	20.40
	The biblical view of the state is contrasted with the statist humanist view. The growing power of the state makes this an important book. 192 pages. HC
44005	The Foundations of Social Order R J Rushdoony	250	20.25
	Traces the history of the early Christian creeds, showing how they are the foundation of Western liberty and social order. 233 pages.
44018	Magna Carta of King John AD 1215	20	1.00
	A small booklet produced by LEM containing the full text of King John's famous human rights charter. 10 pages, with illustrations.
44022	The Nature of the American System R J Rushdoony	340	22.75
	Behind the writing of history is a philosophy of history, and behind that philosophy of history are certain pre-theoretical and essentially religious presuppositions. There is no such thing as brute factuality, but rather only -
44009	The One and the Many R J Rushdoony	650	32.85
	Shows that Greek and Roman religion were statist to the core, thereby making freedom impossible. Challenges the myth that Western civilization was born out of pagan Greece. 375 pages.
44002	Our Threatened Freedom: A Christian View on the Menace of American Statism R J Rushdoony	590	29.10
	Rushdoony comments strongly and insightfully on the absurdity of Statism. His comments are pastoral and theological rather than political, writing as a man who feared God and desired to know how God's Word was applicable to our times. Soft cover, 349 pages.
44010	Politics of Guilt and Pity R J Rushdoony	700	25.30
	Explores the basis of modern man's irrational behaviour. Having trampled God's law underfoot he seeks self-justification through self-atonement. 370 pages. HC
72007	The Roots of the American Republic E C Wines	400	21.95
	A reprint of the 'Hebrew Republic'. Discusses the form of civil government given by God to the Hebrew people, likening its structure, in particular, to the American model for civil government. Important reading.
44021	This Independent Republic R J Rushdoony	280	21.50
	The American Revolution was not a revolution in the modern sense of the word. It was a defensive counter-revolution, fought to preserve American liberties from the usurpation and invasion of Parliament. The attempted overthrow of colonial legislative authority was a conscious move to increase the authority of the crown.
44013	Where are Today's Daniels? Lester Cooper	200	9.15
	An easy-to-read book that clearly defines the relationship between God, governments and Christians. Contains an excellent chapter on Romans chapter 13. 114 pages.
History and Missions
45038	The American Indian R J Rushdoony	220	22.75
	Having spent eight years on the Duck Valley Indian Reservation as a missionary, R J Rushdoony writes with conviction, understanding and biblical wisdom on the plight of the American Indian. This book helps Christians understand the devastating mistakes Western governments have perpetrated against original settlers. His description of the past is also an indictment of our statist future. 139 pages.
45029	The Biblical Philosophy of History R J Rushdoony	240	27.80
	Time, and therefore history, rests on the foundation of eternity and on the eternal decree of God. An excellent introduction to Rushdoony and his emphasis on God's sovereignty over all of time and creation. 136 pages.
45040	The Break-Up of Australia Keith Windschuttle	630	44.95
	Australian voters are not being told the truth about constitutional recognition of indigenous people—in either the indigenous history of the constitution or the agenda of those pushing the legislation. Recognition will not make Australia complete; it will permanently divide it. 470 pages. HC NSC

	An abridged account of the history of Europe from the second century AD to the fall of Constantinople in 1453. Gibbon has been called 'the greatest of the historians of the Enlightenment'.				Today's historians deny the existence of truth and substitute radical theorising for real knowledge about the past. Hence the facts on which truth about the past is built are becoming increasingly obscured. Windschuttle demonstrates how theory has attempted to replace the learning of traditional history with its own political agenda. 298 pages. HC NSC
54003	Eternity in Their Hearts Don Richardson	450	25.10	45007	The Life and Voyages of Christopher Columbus Washington Irving	470	16.95
	Records the amazing evidence of belief in the one true God in the hundreds of cultures around the world. A classic. 223 pages.				First published in 1828, Irving's book is less tainted by the political correctness found in modern accounts of Christopher Columbus's life. 692 pages.
45032	The Fabrication of Aboriginal History Vol. 1 Keith Windschuttle	1070	49.95	45010	The Light And The Glory Manuel &amp; Marshall	550	27.50
	The first volume in a series that reappraises the now widely accepted stories about conflict between colonists and Aborigines. Windschuttle concludes that much of common Australian Aboriginal history is poorly founded, seriously mistaken and, sometimes, outrightly fabricated. 472 pages. HC NSC				A very readable and inspiring account of the Christian history of the US, from Columbus to the late 18th century. From Sea To Shining Sea (code 45011) continues the history. 384 pages.

	The classic but gruesome record of the martyrs, who faced torture and death for their faith in Jesus Christ. 409 pages.				A thorough scholarly, yet readable, record of the revivals in the USA in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. 480 pages. HC
45039	James I: The Fool as King Otto Scott	810	25.25	45036	Risdon Cove: 3 May 1804 John Owen	270	34.95
	Scott makes clear what many scholars, misled by James' sorry appearance and pomposity, have missed. There had never been anything wrong with James' intelligence; it was his character that was deficient. James was a key figure in the shift of the climate of Europe from Christian man to politico-economic man, a shift that undermined the work of the Reformation and the Counter Reformation and gave us the modern era. 470 pages. HC				An account of the first British settlement in Tasmania, this book is the most exhaustively researched account of these events yet published. John Owen's forensic examination of the original documents produces a conclusion that will surprise yet convince most readers about what really happened on that fateful day. 97 pages. HC
45037	John Owen: Prince of Puritans Andrew Thomson	150	12.95	45036	Trial and Triumph Richard Hannula	500	23.80
	More than three hundred years after his death, John Owen's commentaries and devotional books are still in print. Andrew Thomson chronicles his life and introduces the man behind the theology. 166 pages.				A series of 46 short stories, working chronologically through church history from Polycarp to Richard Wurmbrand. An excellent introduction to church history.

Science and Mathematics

- 43038 Alive: An Enquiry into the Origin and Meaning of Life
Magnus Verbrugge 320 22.65
 Verbrugge exposes the animistic and even 'occult' motives of much contemporary science and shows that the abstract powers which account for the world of natural phenomena are in reality idols created by these scientists to replace God. Soft cover, 158 pages.
- 43026 As It Is Written: The Genesis Account Literal or Literary?
Kenneth L Gentry Jr 280 21.40
 This book provides a simple but clear argument for a six-day literal interpretation of Genesis 1. It also explains and rebuts the 'framework hypothesis', which is a leading view in evangelical academic circles. 240 pages.
- 43010 Creation in Six Days
James Jordan 380 24.95
 Jordan gives a precise and careful critique of those Christians who would accommodate Genesis to fit evolutionary theory and defends a traditional interpretation of creation.
- 43014 A Defence of the Bible
Gary J Baxter 660 24.95
 Baxter presents a large format full colour book on apologetics, including interesting chapters on other religions, evolution/creation, science, Jesus's life, and the fulfillment of prophecy. 125 pages. HC LP

 An exploration of the human body, uncovering the eternal statements God has made in the structure of the human body. 214 pages.
- 43004 The Genesis Flood
Morris 700 23.55
 An excellent book dealing with the Genesis Flood and its scientific ramifications. Has a very useful section on the formation of coal and oil. 518 pages.
- 43005 The Genesis Record
Morris 1200 51.85
 A devotional and scientific commentary on the book of Genesis. 716 pages. HC
- 43008 God and Cosmos: A Christian View of Time, Space and the Universe
John Byl 320 17.90
 Byl questions much of modern cosmology and provides a scriptural approach to areas such as the big bang theory, extra terrestrials, the spiritual realm and life after death. 242 pages.

- 43009 In His Image
Brand & Yancey 260 17.00
 The sequel to 'Fearfully and Wonderfully Made', presents further biological wonders of the human body. 291 pages.
- 43025 Mathematics — Is God Silent?
James Nickel 700 30.30
 Revolutionizes the prevailing understanding and teaching of Maths. Shows that Maths is distinctively Christian. 410 pages.
- 43037 The Mythology of Science
R J Rushdoony 300 19.30
 This book defines the nature of the opposing religious systems of thought: Christian creationism and Darwinism. It is a call to Christians to stand firm for biblical six-day creationism as a fundamental aspect of their faith in the Creator.

Social Action and Christian Reconstruction

- 55001 Amazing Grace: The History of Theology and Calvinism (DVD)
 120 44.00
 This excellent DVD set gives over four hours of historical summary of the church's teaching through the years. Eric Holmberg hosts contributions from Dr R C Sproul, Dr George Grant, Rev Walter Chantry, Dr D James Kennedy and others. Excellent material for fruitful group discussion.
- 60001 Backward Christian Soldiers
Gary North 275 10.20
 North calls this his action manual for Christians to take dominion of the earth through a vision of victory and a program of Christian Reconstruction. 370 pages.
- 60020 Blessed are the Hungry
Peter J Leithart 260 18.95
 Subtitled 'Meditations on the Lord's Supper', this book shows the cosmic significance of the Lord's Supper and how it holds clues to the meaning of creation and history.
- 60002 Bringing in the Sheaves
George Grant 430 11.35
 The problem of most so-called 'programs against poverty' is that they promote socialism and thus spread famine and despair. By contrast this book is an inspiring practical book containing excellent biblical solutions to the problem of poverty in the midst of Western plenty. 250 pages, soft cover.
- 60004 Conspiracy: A Biblical View
Gary North 380 19.10
 An updated edition of North's 1986 work, this book has been described as 'controversial, even among conspiracy theorists'. An exploration of the powers of the so-called 'British Establishment' and its American counterpart. 136 pages.

61011	In His Service R J Rushdoony	520	29.10
	In an age where 'charity' is more of a political state welfare term than a personal command of God, Rushdoony explores the Christian's calling to charity and its implications for Godly dominion. 219 pages. HC
51057	Millennialism and Social Theory Gary North	700	19.00
	Presents the case for a biblical social theory in a time when pessimistic Christians have failed to teach and live one. 393 pages. HC
60021	Noble Savages R J Rushdoony	260	22.75
	Subtitled 'Exposing the worldview of pornographers and their war against civilization', Rushdoony states that pornography has religious roots and thus must be resisted religiously—the war against pornography is a war of worldviews. This book is not a 12-step program for overcoming sexual addiction, but rather a penetrating look into the worldview behind pornography and the ideas that fuel it. 161 pages.
44011	Unconditional Surrender Gary North	350	10.20
	An introduction to the theology of the Christian Reconstruction movement. Written for a popular audience, it begins with God, man and law, before making application of these principles to family, church, state, etc. 400 pages.

BIBLICAL LAW

51003	By What Standard? R J Rushdoony	450	17.70
	An analysis of the philosophy of Cornelius Van Til. Based on the presupposition of the sovereignty of God over every area of life. 211 pages. HC
51060	Faith and Obedience R J Rushdoony	60	3.80
	Subtitled 'an Introduction to Biblical Law', this booklet is an important contribution to understanding that law and grace are not opposites and that without law we are left with only one alternative—anarchy. 30 pages.
51258	God's Law Made Easy Kenneth L Gentry Jr	240	22.90
	In our time of moral decline it is imperative to have a standard, and God's law is that standard. As the Law of God is poorly understood by many Christians today this book is an important contribution to help raise the standard. 118 pages.
51081	God's Ten Commandments: Yesterday, Today and Forever Francis Nigel Lee	170	13.55
	God gave man Ten Commandments. Every one of them is vital, in all ages. For only by observing them can man live a full life each week, maintain a happy marriage, and function well in his home, his job, and even in the world. 109 pages.
Rushdoony's Institutes R J Rushdoony
51009	Book 1: Institutes of Biblical Law	1500	56.70
	Deals with the application of biblical law. Biblical law is a plan for dominion under God. The general principles of the law are discussed, as well as their specific applications. 890 pages. HC
51015	Book 2: Law and Society	1300	44.25

51198	Before Jerusalem Fell Kenneth L Gentry Jr	650	27.75
	The dating of the writing of the book of Revelation is most important in biblical prophecy. Gentry demonstrates convincingly that Revelation was written prior to the fall of Jerusalem in 70 AD. 400 pages.
51239	The Book of Revelation Made Easy Kenneth L Gentry Jr	200	27.45
	The book of Revelation was written to be read and heard by its original audience. Gentry cuts through traditions that cloud the clear message and presents the surprisingly easy meaning behind the book. 148 pages.
51161	The Day and the Hour Francis X Gumerlock	530	22.70
	Subtitled 'Christianity's Perennial Fascination with Predicting the End of the World', Gumerlock spans two thousand years of conjecture on the last days, encouraging an approach of cautious ignorance. 359 pages.
51006	The Days of Vengeance: Commentary on Revelation David Chilton	1320	45.85
	The book of Revelation is not about the antichrist, the devil, microchips, or bar codes. It is, as the very first verse says, 'The Revelation of Jesus Christ'. David Chilton shows in this careful, detailed exposition that St John's Apocalypse teaches instead that Christians will overcome all opposition through the work of Jesus Christ. 721 pages. HC
51018	The End of All Things C. Jonathan Seraiah	300	17.60
	Explores 'pantelism', the view that all final events had taken place by 70 AD. Shows how the denial of a second coming of Christ and a final judgement can undermine the very fabric of the Christian faith itself.
51024	Four Views on the Book of Revelation General Editor: C Marvin Pate	220	49.80
	Focuses on the Book of Revelation and the primary ways in which it is read and understood today. From Zondervan's Counterpoints Series. 252 pages.
51008	The Great Tribulation David Chilton	200	9.35
	The most comprehensive and easily understood writing available on the 'Last Days'. Chilton shows that these days concluded in 70 AD. 176 pages.
51113	Last Days Madness Gary DeMar	610	25.20
	DeMar explains in clear language the interpretation of the Olivet Discourse, the abomination of desolation, 666, the return of Christ, the cursed fig tree, the antichrist, armageddon, the rapture and much more. 450 pages.
51155	The Legacy of Hatred Continues Gary DeMar &amp; Peter J Leithart	130	6.50
	This is a response to Hal Lindsey's book, The Road to Holocaust . The authors believe that eschatology is not the problem with Lindsey's thesis. 68 pages.
51166	Matthew 24 Fulfilled John L Bray	490	25.20
	Present day students of eschatology seem woefully ignorant of the writings of past theologians on these subjects. Bray examines the preterite standpoint and dating of revelation in a manner consistent with all of scripture. 349 pages.
51257	Navigating the Book of Revelation Kenneth L Gentry Jr	380	32.00
	Gentry highlights the important issues for understanding Revelation. This book builds on his earlier title The Book of Revelation Made Easy . 200 pages.
51279	The Olivet Discourse Made Easy Kenneth L Gentry Jr	300	20.60
	Christ's teaching on the great tribulation has long intrigued and transfixed Christians. Unfortunately, most Christians leap into the Olivet Discourse with little understanding of how Matthew carefully sets it into the context of Jesus' whole ministry and misconstrue its message. Gentry gives an insightful and compelling verse-by-verse exposition of the Lord's longest discourse. 152 pages.
51017	Paradise Restored David Chilton	590	45.85
	Sets forth the extensive biblical evidence for postmillennialism; the teaching that the world will be disciplined before the return of Christ. This excellent book outlines the eschatology of dominion and is recommended as an introductory book for those who believe the Christian faith rests in a positive hope for the future. 318 pages. HC

51281	Postmillennialism Made Easy Kenneth L Gentry Jr	280	22.90	51120	The Bondage of the Will Martin Luther	380	16.95
	The average Bible-believing Christian today holds no long-range view of the future because they expect the Rapture to snatch them out of the world at any minute. Postmillennialism, however, offers Christians an exciting, hope-filled view of the future that encourages long-term planning and diligent labor for the glory of God. 145 pages.				One of the most important books of the early Reformation. A book most useful for our present day.
51157	Rapture Fever Gary North	425	15.60	51218	Bound Only Once Edited by Douglas Wilson	380	21.50
	This is a study of the paralyzing effects of a doctrine that was invented in 1830. 'It's time to seek the cure for Rapture Fever', says North. 246 pages.				Open Theists insist God has knowledge, but not knowledge of the future acts of free beings. Wilson has assembled authors such as John MacArthur Jr, R C Sproul Jr and Peter Leithart to present a series of articles on Open Theism and expose its dangers to the modern church.
51109	Thine Is the Kingdom: Studies in the Postmillennial Hope Edited by Kenneth L Gentry Jr	400	27.80	51290	The Church is Israel Now Charles D Provan	140	19.40
	This collection of essays by contemporary and historical authors lays the scriptural foundation for a biblically-based, hope-filled postmillennial eschatology. 264 pages.				Consists almost entirely of Bible verses, with only occasional commentary added by the author, which repudiate the viewpoint that God's love is directed toward persons racially descended from Abraham, regardless of faith or obedience. 75 pages.
51078	Understanding the Book of Revelation Kevin Davis	180	11.00	51196	A Comprehensive Faith edited by Andrew Sandlin	600	29.10
	A precis of David Chilton's 'Days of Vengeance', designed for the reader who would find the 720 page volume too much to handle. 78 pages.				A collection of essays in gratitude to Rushdoony's influence that elucidate the importance of his theological and philosophical contributions in numerous fields. 244 pages. HC
51275	A Whole New World: The Gospel According to Revelation Greg Uttinger	130	11.30	51116	A Conquering Faith: Doctrinal Foundations for Christian Reformation William O Einwechter	80	10.10
	Uttinger provides a framework with which to read the entirety of the Book of Revelation with profit. He assists in an understanding of the events, metaphors, and symbols of the Old Testament as key interpretive tools. A brief yet excellent look at the big picture of Revelation. 100 pages.				Gives an introduction to God's sovereignty, Christ's Lordship, God's Law, the authority of Scripture, the dominion mandate and the victory of Christ and his church. 44 pages.
GENERAL THEOLOGY				51269	The Covenantal Tithe Gary North	210	16.95
51225	The Atheism of the Early Church R J Rushdoony	120	15.20		Back with his second book on this timely subject, North clearly demonstrates how the priestly authority of the risen Christ and the Father's everlasting covenant with his elect are bound together in the continuing validity of the tithe as first found in Genesis 14. 159 pages, soft cover.
	Notes from lectures Rushdoony gave in Sydney in the early 1980s. It compares today's church situation with that of the early church in the Roman Empire. 64 pages.			51163	The Cure of Souls R J Rushdoony	650	29.50
51193	Authority Dr Martyn Lloyd-Jones	100	8.50		Subtitled 'Recovering the Biblical Doctrine of Confession', this volume examines the biblical teaching on confession and sets it against the errors of Romanism and the neo-Freudianism of modern Christian counselling.
	Presents the need for authority in the world through Christ, the Scriptures and the Holy Spirit. 94 pages.			51272	Died He for Me Mark A Marinella	250	15.80
51087	A Body of Divinity Thomas Watson	420	24.00		Marinella is a Christian physician who has not only marveled at the spiritual ramifications of Christ's death, but also the physical and physiological aspects. This book is an overview of Jesus's death from a physical and medical perspective. 120 pages.
	Watson deals with the foremost doctrinal and experimental truths of Christianity, based on the Westminster Shorter Catechism. 316 pages.

51007	Dominion and Common Grace Gary North Explains the relationship in history between saving and common grace and helps our understanding of the events of history. 312 pages.	300	13.15	51276	Nourishment from the Word: Select Studies in Reformed Doctrine Kenneth L Gentry Jr A collection of Gentry's shorter writings, featuring concise arguments and well-articulated thoughts on a variety of subjects from Creation to Revelation. 166 pages.	300	21.95
51074	The Forgotten Spurgeon Iain Murray This book seeks to throw light on the reasons which have given rise to the superficial image of Spurgeon as a genial, kindly preacher. 254 pages.	250	21.00	51117	Predestination in Light of the Cross: A Critical Exposition of Luther's Theology John B King Jr In this meticulous study, King provides the church with a clear and thorough presentation of the biblical doctrine of absolute predestination from both a dogmatic and systematic perspective. 304 pages.	460	27.20
51052	God Centred Evangelism R B Kuiper Covers the spectrum of themes on evangelism, from its origin in God, to the assurance of its ultimate triumph. 248 pages.	225	14.10	51280	Predestination Made Easy Kenneth L Gentry Jr A thoroughly biblical, extremely practical, and impressively clear presentation of the doctrine of absolute predestination. Gentry's book is a valuable resource for explaining this daunting doctrine to fellow believers. 134 pages.	250	20.60
51229	The Incredible Scofield and His Book Joseph M Canfield While the Scofield Reference Bible heavily promoted dispensationalism, the life of Cyrus Scofield was not necessarily consistent with his teachings. 314 pages.	720	30.35	51228	Primeval Saints James B Jordan Studies in the patriarchs of Genesis. Jordan draws a picture of how Christian culture should be imagined and lived in our own day, from creativity and work to tyranny and freedom. 156 pages.	220	15.90
51012	Knowing God J I Packer A classic study in the character and person of God. 256 pages.	325	27.50	51038	The Puritan Hope: Revival and the Interpretation of Prophecy Iain Murray A study of the biblical and reformed teaching on the Christian's hope in this world in the prospect of the triumph of the Gospel. 301 pages.	290	14.95
51013	Knowing Scripture R C Sproul Explores why we should study the Bible and how our personal study relates to interpretation. 125 pages.	175	21.15	51093	The Reformed Doctrine of Predestination Lorraine Boettner A thorough treatment of Reformed doctrine and, in particular, the doctrine of predestination. 440 pages.	500	21.15
51260	The Liturgy Trap James B Jordan Subtitled 'The Bible versus Mere Tradition in Worship', Jordan's book counters the drift of evangelicals to the more traditional churches. This book sorts out the true and the false in the area of worship practice, discussing the cult of the saints, the veneration of icons, apostolic succession, virginity and celibacy, the presence of Christ at His Supper, and the doctrine of tradition. 95 pages, soft cover.	100	10.05	51094	The Reformed Faith Lorraine Boettner A brief exposition of the key doctrines of the Reformed faith pertaining to salvation. 28 pages.	70	5.00
51270	Lord of the Saved Kenneth L Gentry Jr Is it possible to know Jesus as Saviour and not as Lord? That is the central issue in this book, and it has immense implications. Gentry wrote this book out of a concern over deficient gospel preaching, false conversions, and faulty assurance of salvation. It is a succinct reformed defense of 'Lordship salvation' against 'easy-believism'. 116 pages, soft cover.	170	16.45	51084	Rest in God Iain Murray A booklet dealing with the use of the Sabbath in our contemporary society. Murray places the emphasis on the Christian believer's love for God's law, and explores the differences between careful obedience to God's law and 'legalism'. 35 pages.	50	5.95
51144	The Necessity for Systematic Theology R J Rushdoony Studies in systematic theology. 74 pages.	140	2.55

	Salvation in scripture includes the meanings of health and victory. By limiting the meaning of salvation, men have limited the power of the Gospel. 512 pages.				A two-volume work addressing the application of the scripture to every area of life. 1290 pages in two volumes. HC
51238	The Sermon on the Mount R J Rushdoony	390	25.30	51076	Tithing and the Church Gary North	350	29.30
	Much has been written about the beatitudes, but very little of it examines the larger meaning found in the context of the new covenant. The beatitudes are a kingdom commission to the new Israel of God. 140 pages. HC				Argues the case for all tithes to go to the church. 204 pages.
51219	The Shape of Sola Scriptura Keith A. Mathison	600	23.80	51273	Truth Standing on its Head John N Day	440	21.50
	An intriguing defence of the ancient and classical Protestant doctrine of scripture alone against the claims of Rome, the East and even modern Evangelicalism.				John Day's provocative study is subtitled Insight for an Extraordinary Christian Walk from the Sermon on the Mount . The exposition of the Beatitudes grabs us and demands our attention. The break with previous tradition, and with our own comfortable presuppositions, is rather merciless, and ultimately drives us to the Cross. 167 pages. HC
51022	The Shorter Catechism with Scripture Proofs	25	3.15	51186	War Psalms of the Prince of Peace James E Adams	200	13.90
	A very useful tool for teaching children the foundational doctrines of the Christian faith. A very economical Bible teaching program for Christian Schools and home educators. 32 pages.				In a time when many Christians consider the imprecatory psalms to have been a mistake and something we should seek to explain away, this book is a refreshing look at these psalms which presents a significant challenge to the thinking and practise of the humanised church of today. 126 pages.
51165	Sovereignty R J Rushdoony	1010	45.35
	The doctrine of sovereignty is a crucial one, because through it Christians will be better equipped to engage each and every area of life. A ground-breaking development of one of the most neglected doctrines. 519 pages. HC
51266	The Sovereignty of God A W Pink	320	23.55
	A most useful book covering one of the most important, yet often neglected, aspects of theology. Unabridged, 268 pages.
